

Summary of Registrable Interests

The Well-being of Future Generations Wales Act 2015 requires me to keep a record of my and my Deputy Commissioner's registrable interests available for inspection at my Office. The questions we are required to answer are:

Registrable interests, as detailed in The Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015 (Registrable Interests) Regulations 2015:

- A) details of any office or employment (paid or unpaid) held by you or a family member; (Partner, child)
- B) details of any interest held by you or a family member in a relevant property; (land or intellectual property in respect of which the Commissioner holds an interest acquired by money provided by the Welsh Ministers)
- C) the names of any companies or other bodies in which you have, either alone or with or on behalf of a family member, a beneficial interest in shares;
- D) remunerated directorships held by you in any company including directorships which are individually unremunerated but where the remuneration is paid through another company in the same group;
- E) the names of any companies or other bodies in which you are a trustee;
- F) details of any remuneration, funding, gift or benefit in kind received in connection with the exercise of functions of the Commissioner, from any company or body and
- G) details of any office held in a political party.

In the interests of transparency and to help me effectively monitor compliance with my conflicts of interest policy, anyone who works for me is required to declare their outside interests upon engagement and review their return at least annually. I full record is available on request.

The attached summary shows the position for those who work in my senior management team as at 31 March 2018.
